

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS (INPR)

International Programs (INPR)

Current programs under INPR include:

International Student Advising (<https://www.unomaha.edu/international-studies-and-programs/student-support/advising.php>) for all international students and scholars.

The Education Abroad (<https://www.unomaha.edu/international-studies-and-programs/study-abroad/>) office assists students in exploring their many options for off campus academic programs, including domestic and global opportunities.

International Student and Scholar Support (<https://www.unomaha.edu/international-studies-and-programs/student-support/>) helps current and new students get oriented to campus, supports academic and immigration-related issues, and offers involvement opportunities on campus and in the community.

ILUNO Intensive English (<https://www.unomaha.edu/international-studies-and-programs/iluno/>) is one of the oldest and most highly regarded English as a Second Language programs in the region.

Global Partnerships (<https://www.unomaha.edu/international-studies-and-programs/global-partnerships/>) supports colleges in developing international partnerships and managing agreements related to global engagement.

International Recruitment (<https://www.unomaha.edu/international-studies-and-programs/>) at UNO focuses on attracting and supporting international students through global outreach, aiding students until their arrival on campus.

Global Partnerships and Recruiting (<https://www.unomaha.edu/international-studies-and-programs/>) supports the development, maintenance, and activities related international partnerships, and student mobility to UNO.

The Center for Afghanistan and Regional Studies (<https://www.unomaha.edu/international-studies-and-programs/center-for-afghanistan-studies/>) continues to serve as America's primary cultural and scholarly link between the two countries.

Young Southeast Asian Leaders Initiative (<https://www.unomaha.edu/international-studies-and-programs/engagement/yseali-institute/>) is an educational and cultural exchange to build the leadership capabilities of young professionals in the region, strengthen ties between the United States and Southeast Asia, and promote collaboration in the ASEAN community.

For further information, contact the International Programs office at 402.554.2293 or world@unomaha.edu